CLOSING IN ON CARRANZA Two Thousand of Orosco's Men R. ported to Be Co-Operating --With Federal Army.

MEXICO CITY, March 8.-It was anounced today that Provisional President Huerta is considering the advisability of making public the official correspondence of the closing days of the Madero administration, with the object of showing that the late president made strenu ous efforts to incite anti-American sentiment throughout the republic.

Among the alleged orders given by Madero during the last week of his rule is one which directs the officers of the Mexcan gunboats lying in the port of Vera Cruz "to fire immediately upon the American marines if an attempt is made to land forces" from the United States war vessels, "paying no regard to the expressed purpose of the American naval commanders merely to protect foreign-

The execution of such an order would have meant the suicide of the Mexican naval forces, as a single shell from the battleship Georgia, then lying only 300 yards distant, would have been sufficient to destroy the Mexican gunboats.

Report of Intervention.

It is also asserted that the official files how that a few days before his capture Francisco Madero, in desperation, telegraphed to the state governors and jefes politicos throughout the republic, stating that American marines had landed at Vera Cruz and that this foreign invasion demanded the loyalty of all Mexican plans of the fugitives, who are declared to be anxious for revenge. It was reported today that the South-ern Pacific railroad has transferred all its rolling stock from Sonora to Nogales and has annulled the train service. Three columns of the regular army and 2000 adherents of Pascuale Orozco are closing in on Venustiano Carranza, the rebel governor of Coahulla, according to official dispatches today. A decisive battle is expected Sunday near Mon-clova, unless Carranza manages to es-cape over the border.

Nation's Future at Stake. There was a heated debate in the chamber of deputies lasting until a late hour last night on the question of the amnesty bill introduced by Provisional President Huerta. The bill passed through its preliminary stage and will be taken up for further discussion shortly. The leaders of the opposition criticised the government keenly for desiring to offer an amnesty to rebels who had been guilty of incendiarism and other forms of brigandage, but Querido Moheno, the leader of the governmental party, declared that the administration must pardon all and be liberal in its new efforts at

Deputy Fabela, the leader of the fac tion which favored the late President Francisco Madero, declared that the amesty should be granted to political ofnesty should be granted to political or-fenders only, and not to robbers and ban-dits. Senor Fabela asked why the gov-ernment had falled to prosecute Manuel Bonilla, the former minister of fomento, and yet was dealing severely with other political offenders.

Aims at Huerta's Fall.

TUCSON, Ariz., March 8.-By the fact that Sonora has revolted from the present provisional government of Mexico and its congress repudiated the Huerta administration, ex-Gov. Maytorena hopes to convince the United States that President Huerta is not in control of Mexico, and recognition of his administration therefore should be withheld. Maytorena denies that the state con-gress awaited the inauguration of President Wilson before breaking with the Huerta administration and declares the two occurrences were merely incidental. According to Maytorena, an army of 10,-000 men is mobilizing, and he expects them to be put into the field within the immediate future. The only federal troops now in Sonora are the rural police under Col. Kosterlitzky, who is operating his men as guards along the Southern Pacific

Vulture's Egg Hatched at Zoological Gardens in London.

LONDON, March 1, 1913. The hatching of a vulture's egg at the Zoological Gardens for the first time in their history has ended in tragedy. After sitting steadily for fifty-four days the two great, sinister-looking Koln vultures finally hatched their egg, when all hopes clude instructions to dynamite all the public and private buildings between the national palace and the arsenal.

as an indication that, whatever the policy of its being fertile had been given up by the other Latin American republics, there is not likely to be any relinquishment.

In fact the day before the vulture chick was born the egg was taken away from the nest by the attendants, but when handling it they noticed signs of life and immediately replaced it. A sad fate was in store for the little vulture, however. The life of this new arrival at the Zoological Gardens fasted

but one short day.

Brother Also Badly Injured in Trip Through Paris Tube.

PARIS, March 1, 1913. An Arab was killed recently in the Paris tube and his brother was badly hurt on the head and received internal injuries. The two men were on their first visit to Paris, and had never been in the tube before. The journey excited them, and when they reached the station at which they had been told to alight they stepped out of the coach as soon as they caught sight of its name, before the train stopped.
